EMPLOYMENT ADMINISTRATION

WHAT THIS PART COVERS

- Employment Categories
- Recruitment And Selection Policy
- Job Description And Duties
- Equal Employment Opportunity
- Employment Contract Policy
- Employee Records And Personal Information

Read this Part carefully and complete the acknowledgement at the end.

1. EMPLOYMENT CATEGORIES

The Company employs individuals under various employment arrangements depending on operational requirements and business needs.

The applicable employment category shall be stated in the Employment Contract.

1.1 Permanent Employees

Permanent Employees are employed on an ongoing basis without a predetermined end date and are entitled to benefits and privileges as stated in their Employment Contract and Company policies.

Permanent employment may be offered upon successful completion of the probation period or through direct appointment.

1.2 Probationary Employees

Probationary Employees are employees serving a probation period to assess:

- Job performance;
- Competency;
- Attendance;
- Conduct;
- Suitability for the position; and
- Cultural fit within the organisation.

The probation period shall be stated in the Employment Contract.

Confirmation of employment is not automatic and remains subject to Management approval.

1.3 Contract Employees

Contract Employees are engaged for a fixed duration or specific project and shall be governed by the terms and conditions stated in their Employment Contract.

Employment shall automatically expire upon the completion of the contract period unless renewed by the Company.

1.4 Part-Time Employees

Part-Time Employees are engaged to work fewer hours than full-time employees and are entitled to statutory benefits and contractual benefits as applicable.

1.5 Interns and Trainees

Interns and Trainees are engaged primarily for educational or training purposes.

Internships do not create any expectation of permanent employment unless specifically offered by the Company.

1.6 Freelancers and Consultants

Freelancers and Consultants are independent contractors and are not employees of the Company.

Their engagement shall be governed by a Service Agreement and they shall not be entitled to employee benefits unless otherwise agreed in writing.

2. EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

RedPoint Sdn Bhd is committed to maintaining a workplace that promotes fairness, respect, and equal opportunity.

Employment decisions, including recruitment, promotion, compensation, training, and career development, shall be based on:

- Qualifications;
- Skills;

- Experience;
- Performance;
- Competencies; and
- Business requirements.

The Company does not tolerate unlawful discrimination or harassment on the basis of:

- Race;
- Religion;
- Gender;
- Marital Status;
- Age;
- Nationality;
- Disability; or
- Any other protected characteristic under applicable laws.

All employees are expected to contribute to an inclusive and respectful workplace.

3. RECRUITMENT AND SELECTION POLICY

The Company seeks to recruit individuals who possess the necessary qualifications, skills, and attitude to contribute positively to the organisation.

The recruitment process generally includes:

RECRUITMENT JOURNEY

01 Manpower requisition & approval	02 Advertise role & source candidates
03 Screen applications	04 Interview & assess
05 Verify references/background	06 Select & approve
07 Issue offer of employment	08 Onboard & orient

The Company reserves the right to:

- Determine recruitment criteria;
- Conduct assessments and background checks;
- Reject any application without assigning reasons.

Any falsification or omission of information during the recruitment process may result in the withdrawal of an offer or termination of employment.

4. EMPLOYMENT CONTRACT POLICY

Every employee shall receive a written Employment Contract before or upon commencement of employment.

The Employment Contract serves as the primary agreement governing the employment relationship between the Company and the Employee.

The Employment Contract may include:

- Position and Job Title;
- Department;
- Reporting Structure;
- Date of Commencement;
- Working Hours;

- Salary and Benefits;
- Probation Period;
- Notice Period;
- Leave Entitlements;
- Confidentiality Obligations; and
- Other Terms and Conditions.

The Employment Contract shall take precedence over this Handbook in the event of any inconsistency unless otherwise required by law.

Employees are required to sign and return the Employment Contract within the period specified by the Company.

5. JOB DESCRIPTION AND DUTIES

Each employee shall be assigned duties and responsibilities appropriate to his or her position.

Employees are expected to:

- Perform their duties diligently and professionally;
- Achieve assigned goals and deliverables;
- Follow lawful instructions from Management;
- Meet deadlines and performance expectations;
- Maintain professional standards and behaviour.

The Company reserves the right to:

- Amend job responsibilities;
- Assign additional duties;
- Reassign work responsibilities;
- Transfer employees to other departments or projects where operationally necessary.

In a fast-paced agency environment, employees may occasionally be required to undertake duties outside their usual scope of work, provided such duties are reasonable and related to business operations.

6. EMPLOYEE RECORDS AND PERSONAL INFORMATION

The Company maintains employment records for administrative, statutory, and operational purposes.

Employees are required to provide accurate and complete information, including:

- Full Name;
- NRIC or Passport Details;
- Residential Address;
- Contact Information;
- Emergency Contact Information;
- Bank Account Information;
- EPF Number;
- SOCSO Number;
- Tax Identification Number (TIN);
- Educational Qualifications;
- Professional Certifications.

Employees are responsible for notifying Human Resources of any changes to their personal information within seven (7) calendar days.

The Company may request supporting documentation to verify any updates.

The Company shall manage personal information in accordance with applicable laws and Company policies.

7. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION DECLARATION

Employees shall maintain the confidentiality of all information obtained during their employment.

Confidential Information includes but is not limited to:

7.1 Business Information

- Business strategies;
- Financial information;
- Pricing structures;
- Marketing plans.

7.2 Client Information

- Client lists;
- Campaign information;
- Commercial arrangements;
- Client data and documents.

7.3 Company Information

- Internal policies;
- Reports;
- Presentations;
- Operational procedures.

7.4 Digital Information

- Passwords;
- Access credentials;
- Social media accounts;
- Google Drive files;
- Company databases.

Employees shall not:

- Disclose confidential information to unauthorised persons;
- Copy or distribute confidential information without approval;
- Use Company information for personal gain;
- Remove confidential information without legitimate business reasons.

The obligation of confidentiality continues even after the cessation of employment.

Any breach of confidentiality may result in disciplinary action, legal proceedings, and claims for damages where appropriate.

PART ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I confirm that I have read and understood Part 2: Employment Administration.

PROBATION & EMPLOYEE LIFECYCLE

WHAT THIS PART COVERS

- Probation Policy
- Promotion Policy
- Acting Appointment Policy
- Confirmation Of Employment Policy
- Transfer And Mobility Policy
- Demotion Policy

Read this Part carefully and complete the acknowledgement at the end.

The Company believes in providing employees with opportunities to learn, grow, and develop their careers while maintaining high standards of performance, accountability, and professionalism.

1. PROBATION POLICY

1.1 Purpose

The probation period allows the Company to assess an employee's:

- Performance;
- Competency;
- Attendance;
- Conduct;
- Adaptability; and
- Cultural fit.

It also provides employees with an opportunity to understand their role and responsibilities.

1.2 Probation Period

The probation period shall be stated in the Employment Contract and may typically range from:

- Three (3) months, which may be extended upon written notice.

1.3 Performance Expectations

During probation, employees are expected to demonstrate:

1.3.1 Performance

- Ability to perform assigned duties.
- Ability to meet deadlines and objectives.
- Quality and accuracy of work.

1.3.2 Attendance

- Consistent attendance.
- Punctuality.
- Compliance with working schedules.

1.3.3 Behaviour

- Professional conduct.
- Teamwork and collaboration.
- Positive attitude and willingness to learn.

1.3.4 Cultural Fit

- Alignment with Company values.
- Accountability and ownership.
- Ability to work in a fast-paced environment.

1.4 Performance Monitoring

Managers may conduct periodic reviews and coaching sessions during the probation period.

1.5 Early confirmation

The Company may, at its sole discretion, confirm an employee's employment prior to the expiry of the standard probation period if the employee demonstrates exceptional performance and suitability for the role.

1.6 Extension of Probation

The Company may extend an employee's probation where:

- Performance improvement is required;
- Additional training is necessary;
- Attendance concerns exist; or
- Further assessment is required.

The extension period shall generally range from one (1) to three (3) months and shall be communicated in writing.

1.7 Non-Confirmation

The Company reserves the right to terminate employment during or upon completion of the probation period in accordance with applicable laws and contractual requirements.

2. CONFIRMATION OF EMPLOYMENT POLICY

Confirmation of employment signifies that an employee has successfully completed the probation period and demonstrated satisfactory:

- Performance;
- Attendance;
- Conduct; and
- Suitability for continued employment.

2.1 Eligibility

Employees may be considered for confirmation upon:

- Completion of probation;
- Achievement of performance expectations;
- Satisfactory attendance record;
- Recommendation by the Reporting Manager.

2.2 Confirmation Process

CONFIRMATION DECISION

01 Supervisor conducts probation review	02 Evaluation goes to Management / HR	03 Management determines the outcome
--	--	---

POSSIBLE OUTCOMES

CONFIRM EMPLOYMENT	EXTEND PROBATION	NON-CONFIRMATION
--------------------	------------------	------------------

Confirmation shall only take effect upon issuance of a written Confirmation Letter.

Completion of probation does not automatically result in confirmation.

3. PROMOTION POLICY

3.1 Purpose

The Company recognises and rewards employees who consistently demonstrate high performance, leadership potential, and readiness to undertake greater responsibilities.

3.2 Eligibility

Promotion may be considered based on:

- Business requirements;
- Performance;
- Competency;
- Leadership capability;
- Skills and experience;
- Conduct and attendance record.

3.3 General Guidelines

Promotion is not automatic and is not solely based on length of service.

Employees being considered for promotion should generally demonstrate:

- Consistent performance;
- Initiative and accountability;
- Strong teamwork;
- Ability to work independently;
- Readiness to assume higher responsibilities.

3.4 Promotion Process

- Recommendation by Reporting Manager.
- Assessment by Management and Human Resources.
- Approval by Management.
- Issuance of Promotion Letter.

4. TRANSFER AND MOBILITY POLICY

The Company may transfer employees between:

- Departments;
- Teams;
- Projects;
- Business Units;
- Locations.

Transfers may be made:

- To support business operations;
- To facilitate employee development;
- Due to organisational restructuring.

Employees are expected to cooperate with reasonable transfer arrangements.

The Company shall provide reasonable notice whenever practicable.

5. ACTING APPOINTMENT POLICY

The Company may appoint an employee to temporarily assume additional responsibilities due to:

- Leave of absence;
- Resignation;
- Vacancy;

- Business requirements.

An Acting Appointment:

- Does not constitute a promotion;
- Does not guarantee future promotion;
- May be withdrawn at any time.

Any acting allowance shall be determined at the Company's discretion.

6. DEMOTION POLICY

Demotion refers to the reassignment of an employee to a lower position, grade, or level of responsibility.

Demotion may occur due to:

- Organisational restructuring;
- Unsatisfactory performance;
- Disciplinary reasons;
- Mutual agreement.

The Company shall communicate the reasons for demotion and any changes to compensation or responsibilities in writing.

7. INTERNAL RECRUITMENT POLICY

The Company encourages employees to explore internal career opportunities.

Internal vacancies may be advertised to employees before external recruitment.

Employees interested in internal opportunities may apply subject to:

- Satisfactory performance;
- Good attendance;
- Manager's recommendation;
- Meeting the minimum requirements of the position.

The Company reserves the right to determine the selection process and final appointment.

8. SUCCESSION PLANNING POLICY

The Company is committed to developing future leaders and ensuring business continuity.

Succession planning aims to:

- Identify high-potential employees;
- Develop leadership capabilities;
- Build talent pipelines;
- Support long-term organisational growth.

Participation in succession planning does not guarantee promotion or appointment.

9. TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT POLICY

The Company encourages continuous learning and professional development.

Training may include:

- Orientation Programmes;
- On-the-Job Training;
- Technical Training;

- Leadership Development;
- Workshops and Seminars;
- Professional Certifications;
- Online Learning Programmes.

Employees are expected to:

- Participate actively in training;
- Apply knowledge and skills acquired;
- Share relevant knowledge with colleagues where appropriate.

The Company reserves the right to determine training requirements and participation.

10. TRAINING BOND POLICY

Where the Company sponsors employees for:

- Professional Certifications;
- External Training Programmes;
- Educational Programmes;
- Overseas Training;
- Significant Development Programmes,

the Company may require employees to enter into a Training Bond Agreement.

10.1 Bond Period

The bond period and amount shall depend on:

- Training cost;
- Duration of programme;
- Nature of sponsorship.

The terms shall be stated in a separate agreement.

10.2 Resignation During Bond Period

Employees who resign before completing the bond period may be required to reimburse all or part of the training costs in accordance with the Training Bond Agreement and applicable laws.

11. EMPLOYEE LIFECYCLE AT REDPOINT

EMPLOYEE LIFECYCLE

01 Recruitment	02 Probation	03 Confirmation

WORKING HOURS & ATTENDANCE

WHAT THIS PART COVERS

- Working Hours Policy
- Remote Work Policy
- Shift Work Policy
- Flexible Working Arrangement (Fwa)
- Hybrid Work Policy
- Attendance Policy

Read this Part carefully and complete the acknowledgement at the end.

The Company recognises the importance of work-life balance while ensuring operational efficiency and service excellence. Employees are expected to observe their assigned working schedules, maintain punctuality, and comply with attendance requirements.

1. WORKING HOURS POLICY

Working days, working hours, rest days, and reporting schedules may vary depending on the employee's position, department, job responsibilities, operational requirements, and Employment Contract.

The Company may implement different working arrangements based on business needs, including but not limited to:

- 5-day work week;
- 5.5-day work week;
- 6-day work week;
- Shift-based arrangement;
- Flexible working arrangement;
- Remote or hybrid working arrangement;
- Event-based or project-based working schedule.

Specific working hours applicable to each employee shall be stated in the employee's Letter of Appointment, Employment Contract, work schedule, or any written notice issued by the Company.

All full working days shall include a one (1) hour unpaid meal break, unless otherwise stated or adjusted due to operational needs.

Employees shall not work more than eight (8) hours per day or forty-five (45) hours per week, excluding meal breaks, unless specifically agreed or approved for overtime arrangements in accordance with applicable laws and Company policies.

The Company reserves the right to amend, rotate, or adjust working schedules, rest days, reporting times, and work arrangements from time to time to meet business and operational requirements.

2. FLEXIBLE WORKING ARRANGEMENT (FWA)

The Company recognises that certain positions may benefit from flexible working arrangements.

Flexible Working Arrangements may include:

- Flexible reporting time;
- Compressed working schedules;
- Temporary adjustments to work arrangements;
- Flexible workplace arrangements.

All Flexible Working Arrangements:

- Require prior approval;
- May be revoked at any time;
- Do not reduce employees' responsibilities and performance expectations.

Employees under FWA remain subject to all Company policies and attendance requirements.

3. REMOTE WORK POLICY

Remote Work is a privilege granted at the Company's discretion.

Employees working remotely are expected to:

- Remain contactable during working hours;
- Attend meetings and calls promptly;
- Meet all deadlines and deliverables;
- Maintain productivity and performance standards;

- Protect Company and client information.

Employees may be required to return to the office at any time upon Management's instruction.

4. HYBRID WORK POLICY

The Company may implement hybrid work arrangements where employees work partly from the office and partly from another approved location.

The hybrid arrangement may vary depending on:

- Business requirements;
- Department needs;
- Position requirements;
- Employee performance.

Hybrid work arrangements do not constitute a permanent entitlement and may be reviewed or withdrawn by Management.

5. SHIFT WORK POLICY

Certain positions may require employees to work on:

- Rotating shifts;
- Weekend shifts;
- Event-based schedules;
- Extended operational hours.

Shift schedules shall be communicated in advance whenever practicable.

Employees are expected to comply with assigned schedules and reporting times.

6. ATTENDANCE POLICY

Attendance is a fundamental responsibility of employment.

Employees are expected to:

- Report to work punctually;
- Be ready to commence work at the scheduled start time;
- Attend all scheduled meetings and assignments;
- Notify supervisors if they are unable to report to work.

Repeated absenteeism or attendance issues may result in disciplinary action.

7. TIMEKEEPING POLICY

Employees are required to accurately record their attendance using the Company's designated attendance system.

Methods of attendance recording may include:

- Biometric Attendance System;
- Mobile Attendance Application;
- GPS Clock-In System;
- Manual Attendance Register.

Employees shall not:

- Clock in or out on behalf of another employee;
- Falsify attendance records;
- Manipulate attendance information.

Falsification of attendance records constitutes serious misconduct.

8. LATE COMING POLICY

Punctuality is essential in maintaining productivity, teamwork, and client service standards.

An employee is considered late if he or she reports to work after the scheduled reporting time.

A grace period of fifteen (15) minutes may be allowed at Management's discretion. Such grace does not constitute an entitlement and may be withdrawn.

8.1 Attendance Disciplinary Matrix

8.1.1 First Occurrence

Verbal Reminder.

8.1.2 Three (3) Instances Within One Month

Verbal Warning.

8.1.3 Five (5) Instances Within One Month

First Written Warning.

8.1.4 Seven (7) Instances Within Three Months

Final Written Warning.

8.1.5 Continued Offences

Disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Repeated lateness may also affect:

- Confirmation of Employment;
- Performance Appraisal;
- Salary Increment;
- Bonus Consideration;
- Promotion Opportunities.

Employees who expect to be late must notify their Supervisor immediately with valid and acceptable reasons, such as medical emergencies, unforeseen transportation issues, family emergencies, or other circumstances beyond the employee's control. Failure to do so may trigger a Show Cause Letter or placement under a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP).

9. OVERTIME POLICY

Employees may be required to work beyond their normal working hours due to:

- Client requirements;
- Events and campaigns;
- Project deadlines;
- Operational emergencies.

All overtime work must be approved by the employee's Reporting Manager.

Employees eligible for overtime payments shall be compensated in accordance with applicable laws and Company policies.

Employees who are not eligible for statutory overtime may be granted time-off arrangements or replacement leave at the Company's discretion.

Unauthorised overtime may not be eligible for compensation.

10. REPLACEMENT LEAVE POLICY

Replacement Leave may be granted to employees required to work:

- Rest Days;
- Public Holidays;
- Company Events;
- Exhibitions;
- Emergency Assignments.

Replacement Leave:

- Requires prior approval;
- Must be utilised within one (1) month from the date earned;
- Is subject to operational requirements.

Replacement Leave shall be prioritised over overtime payments where applicable; however, statutory overtime payments will be provided where required by law.

Unused Replacement Leave shall lapse unless otherwise approved by Management.

11. REST DAY POLICY

Every employee shall be entitled to at least one (1) whole rest day per week.

The designated rest day shall depend on the employee's work arrangement and operational requirements.

Where business needs require employees to work on their rest day, compensation shall be administered in accordance with applicable laws and Company policies.

12. PUBLIC HOLIDAY POLICY

Employees are entitled to public holidays in accordance with applicable employment laws and Company policy.

The Company reserves the right to determine:

- The list of gazetted public holidays observed;
- Replacement holidays where permitted by law;
- Work arrangements during public holidays.

Employees required to work on public holidays shall receive compensation in accordance with applicable laws and Company policies, which may include overtime payment or earned replacement leave as determined by Management.

13. BUSINESS TRAVEL WORKING HOURS

Employees may occasionally be required to travel for:

- Client meetings;
- Roadshows;
- Exhibitions;
- Events;
- Training programmes;
- Business assignments.

Business travel outside normal working hours does not automatically constitute overtime.

Employees attending business travel are expected to:

- Follow approved itineraries;
- Manage time responsibly;

- Comply with Company policies.

Where employees are required to perform substantial work duties outside normal working hours during business travel, Management may determine appropriate compensation or replacement leave arrangements.

14. ATTENDANCE EXPECTATIONS AT REDPOINT

At RedPoint, we value:

- ✓ Accountability
- ✓ Punctuality
- ✓ Professionalism
- ✓ Ownership
- ✓ Respect for Team and Clients

Attendance and punctuality are not merely administrative requirements; they reflect an employee's commitment, reliability, and professionalism.

Habitual lateness, absenteeism, and poor attendance may adversely affect career progression and employment with the Company.

PART ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I confirm that I have read and understood Part 4: Working Hours & Attendance.

LEAVE ADMINISTRATION

WHAT THIS PART COVERS

- Annual Leave Policy
- Hospitalisation Leave Policy
- Paternity Leave Policy
- Sick Leave Policy
- Maternity Leave Policy
- Marriage Leave Policy

Read this Part carefully and complete the acknowledgement at the end.

The Company recognises the importance of work-life balance and employee wellbeing. Employees are encouraged to plan and utilise their leave responsibly while ensuring minimal disruption to business operations.

All leave entitlements are subject to the Employment Act 1955, applicable laws, the employee's Employment Contract, and Company policies.

1. ANNUAL LEAVE POLICY

1.1 Entitlement

Employees are entitled to paid Annual Leave in accordance with their Employment Contract, applicable laws, and Company policies.

By default, the Company shall provide Annual Leave entitlement based on the following schedule, unless a different entitlement is expressly stated in the employee's Letter of Appointment, Employment Contract, or any written agreement issued by the Company.

Years of Service	Annual Leave Entitlement
Less than 2 years	8 days
2 years to less than 5 years	12 days
5 years and above	16 days

Annual Leave entitlement may differ depending on operational requirements, position level, job nature, work arrangement, or other business considerations as determined by the Company.

The Company may provide enhanced Annual Leave entitlement at its discretion, provided that such entitlement is stated in writing.

1.2 Utilisation of Annual Leave

Annual Leave:

- Must be applied at least one (1) week in advance.
- Applications submitted less than three (3) working days in advance may be considered as Emergency Leave.
- Is subject to Supervisor approval and operational requirements.
- Should be planned responsibly to minimise disruption to business operations.

Employees shall not proceed on Annual Leave unless approval has been obtained through the Company's designated approval process.

2. SICK LEAVE POLICY

Employees are entitled to paid Sick Leave in accordance with applicable laws.

Years of Service	Sick Leave Entitlement
Less than 2 years	14 days
2 years to less than 5 years	18 days
5 years and above	22 days

Employees must:

- Notify their Supervisor: at least 1 hour before starting work.
- Supervisor to notify HR in the designated HR Group for acknowledgement.
- Seek medical treatment.
- Submit a copy of the Medical Certificate (MC) in the HERD system within forty-eight (48) hours.
- Provide the original copy to HR or the immediate superior upon returning to work.

Employees absent for two (2) consecutive working days or more must provide a valid Medical Certificate.

Abuse or falsification of medical documents may result in disciplinary action.

3. HOSPITALISATION LEAVE POLICY

Employees certified by a registered medical practitioner to require hospitalisation shall be entitled to:

- Up to sixty (60) days of Hospitalisation Leave per calendar year, inclusive of ordinary Sick Leave entitlement.

Supporting documents such as Hospital Admission Letters, Medical Certificates, and Medical Reports may be required.

4. MATERNITY LEAVE POLICY

Eligible female employees shall be entitled to:

- Ninety-eight (98) consecutive days of paid maternity leave in accordance with applicable laws.

Employees are encouraged to inform the Company as early as practicable to facilitate workforce planning.

Supporting documents may be required.

5. PATERNITY LEAVE POLICY

Eligible male employees shall be entitled to:

- Seven (7) consecutive days of paid paternity leave for each confinement, subject to applicable laws.

Employees should provide reasonable notice and supporting documentation.

6. MARRIAGE LEAVE POLICY

The Company may grant:

- Three (3) days of paid Marriage Leave for an employee's first legal marriage.

Marriage Leave must be utilised within one (1) month of the marriage date.

Supporting documentation may be required.

7. COMPASSIONATE LEAVE POLICY

Employees may be granted:

- Up to three (3) days of paid Compassionate Leave upon the passing of an immediate family member.

Immediate family includes:

- Spouse
- Parents
- Children
- Parents-in-law
- Siblings

Supporting documents may be required.

8. EMERGENCY LEAVE POLICY

Emergency Leave may be granted due to:

Approval is subject to Management's discretion.

9. UNPAID LEAVE POLICY

Employees who have exhausted their leave entitlements may apply for Unpaid Leave.

Employees may apply for a maximum of fourteen (14) days of Unpaid Leave per calendar year.

Approval shall depend on:

- Business requirements;
- Reason for leave;
- Employee's attendance and performance record.

If an employee anticipates being away from work for more than fourteen (14) days, the employee is required to discuss the matter with Management or HR for appropriate arrangements.

10. STUDY LEAVE POLICY

The Company supports continuous learning and may grant Study Leave for:

- Professional qualifications;
- Company-sponsored programmes;
- Approved educational courses.

Study Leave may be paid or unpaid and is subject to Management approval.

Supporting documents may be required.

11. EXAMINATION LEAVE POLICY

Employees pursuing approved educational programmes may apply for Examination Leave.

The Company may grant:

- Up to two (2) days of paid Examination Leave per examination paper, subject to Management approval.

Supporting documents such as examination timetables and registration slips must be provided.

12. HALF-DAY LEAVE POLICY

Employees may apply for Half-Day Leave for:

- Personal matters;
- Medical appointments;
- Family commitments;
- Other reasonable purposes.

Half-Day Leave may be deducted from:

- Annual Leave; or
- Replacement Leave.

Applications are subject to Supervisor approval and operational requirements.

13. REPLACEMENT LEAVE POLICY

Employees required to work on:

- Rest Days;
- Public Holidays;
- Company Events;
- Exhibitions;
- Emergency Assignments;

may be granted Replacement Leave.

Replacement Leave:

- Requires prior approval;
- Must be utilised within one (1) month from the date earned;
- Is subject to operational requirements.

Unused Replacement Leave shall lapse unless otherwise approved.

14. LEAVE CARRY FORWARD POLICY

Unused Annual Leave may be carried forward.

Unless otherwise stated in the Employment Contract:

- Maximum Carry Forward: Fifty percent (50%) of unused Annual Leave balance.

Carried forward leave must be utilised by:

- 31 May of the following calendar year.

Any unused balance thereafter shall automatically lapse.

15. LEAVE ENCASHMENT POLICY

Annual Leave encashment is generally not encouraged.

However, the Company may allow leave encashment:

- During separation of employment;
- Due to business requirements; or
- At Management's discretion.

16. LEAVE APPLICATION PROCEDURE

COMPENSATION & BENEFITS

WHAT THIS PART COVERS

- Salary Administration Policy
- Salary Deduction Policy
- Allowance Policy
- Payroll Policy
- Overtime Payment Policy
- Claims And Reimbursement Policy

Read this Part carefully and complete the acknowledgement at the end.

The Company is committed to providing fair and competitive compensation and benefits that recognise employee contributions while supporting the Company's business objectives and long-term sustainability.

All compensation and benefits are subject to applicable laws, the Employment Contract, Company policies, and Management approval.

1. SALARY ADMINISTRATION POLICY

Employee salaries are determined based on factors including:

- Job responsibilities and scope;
- Qualifications and experience;
- Skills and competencies;
- Market competitiveness;
- Individual performance;
- Internal equity;
- Business requirements and affordability.

Salary information is strictly confidential.

Employees are prohibited from disclosing or discussing confidential payroll information without legitimate business reasons.

The Company reserves the right to review and amend salary structures from time to time.

2. PAYROLL POLICY

2.1 Payroll Cycle

Employees shall be paid once every calendar month.

The salary payment date shall generally be on or before the seventh (7th) day of the following month unless otherwise determined by the Company.

Where the payment date falls on a weekend or public holiday, payment may be made on the preceding or next working day.

2.2 Payment Method

Salary shall be paid through:

- Bank transfer; or
- Other methods approved by the Company.

Employees are responsible for ensuring that their bank account details are accurate and up to date.

2.3 Payslips

Electronic payslips shall be issued monthly and may include:

- Basic Salary;
- Allowances;
- Overtime Payments;
- Statutory Contributions;
- Salary Deductions;
- Claims and Reimbursements;
- Other adjustments.

Employees are encouraged to review their payslips and report discrepancies within seven (7) calendar days from the payment date.

3. SALARY DEDUCTION POLICY

The Company may make deductions from salary in accordance with applicable laws.

Permissible deductions may include:

- EPF Contributions;
- SOCSO Contributions;
- Employment Insurance System (EIS) Contributions;
- Monthly Tax Deduction (PCB);
- Unpaid Leave;
- Salary Advances;
- Approved Employee Purchases;
- Recovery of Overpayments;
- Deductions authorised by the employee in writing;
- Other deductions permitted by law.

The Company shall not make unlawful deductions from employees' wages.

4. OVERTIME PAYMENT POLICY

Employees who are eligible for overtime under applicable laws shall be compensated in accordance with statutory requirements.

Overtime work must:

- Be approved in advance by the Reporting Manager; and
- Be properly recorded and submitted.

Unauthorised overtime may not be eligible for payment.

The Company reserves the right to grant:

- Overtime Payment;
- Time-Off; or
- Replacement Leave,

where permitted by law and Company policy.

Employees who are not eligible for statutory overtime may be granted replacement leave or time-off at Management's discretion.

5. ALLOWANCE POLICY

The Company may provide allowances to eligible employees based on business requirements and job responsibilities.

Allowances may include:

- Travel Allowance;
- Transportation Allowance;
- Mobile Phone Allowance;
- Meal Allowance;
- Outstation Allowance;
- Parking Allowance;
- Internet Allowance;
- Acting Allowance;
- Other allowances approved by Management.

The amount, eligibility, and terms of any allowance shall be determined solely by the Company and may be amended or withdrawn at any time.

Allowances do not form part of an employee's contractual salary unless expressly stated otherwise.

The Company reserves the right to adjust, reduce, or withhold allowances in the event that an employee fails to meet agreed-upon Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) or performance targets, subject to Management review and in accordance with Company policy.

6. CLAIMS AND REIMBURSEMENT POLICY

Employees may claim approved business expenses incurred in the course of employment.

Eligible claims may include:

- Transportation;
- Parking;
- Toll;
- Accommodation;
- Meals;
- Entertainment;
- Business Purchases;
- Other authorised expenses.

6.1 Submission Requirements

Employees must:

- Submit claims using the prescribed claim form or system;
- Attach original receipts or supporting documents;
- Obtain approval from their Supervisor.

6.2 Claim Submission Timeline

All claims must be submitted within one (1) month from the date the expense was incurred.

For processing purposes, claims must be submitted on or before the twenty-fifth (25th) day of each month.

Claims submitted after the cut-off date will be carried forward to the next month's processing cycle.

Reimbursement for approved claims will be paid on the fifth (5th) day of the following month.

The Company reserves the right to reject incomplete, inaccurate, or unsupported claims.

False or fraudulent claims constitute serious misconduct and may result in disciplinary action.

7. BONUS POLICY

The Company may, at its sole discretion, grant bonuses to employees.

Bonus payments are not contractual unless expressly stated in the Employment Contract.

The granting of bonuses may take into consideration:

- Company performance;
- Department performance;
- Individual performance;
- Financial results;
- Business conditions;
- Length of service;
- Conduct and attendance record.

Employees who are serving notice of resignation, under disciplinary investigation, or who have resigned before the bonus payment date may not be eligible for bonus payments unless otherwise determined by Management.

The Company reserves the sole discretion to determine:

- Eligibility;
- Amount;
- Timing; and
- Conditions of bonus payments.

8. INCREMENT POLICY

Salary increments are not automatic and shall be granted solely at the Company's discretion.

Salary reviews may take into consideration:

- Individual performance;
- Achievement of KPIs;
- Competency and contribution;
- Attendance and discipline record;
- Internal equity;
- Market conditions;
- Company financial performance.

Employees with the following may not be considered for increments:

- Unsatisfactory performance;
- Ongoing disciplinary matters;
- Final written warnings;
- Excessive absenteeism or habitual lateness.

Any salary increment approved by the Company shall be communicated in writing.

9. BENEFITS ADMINISTRATION (TBC)

The Company may provide additional benefits to eligible employees, including:

- Medical Benefits;
- Insurance Coverage;
- Professional Development Opportunities;
- Staff Welfare Programmes;
- Employee Engagement Activities;
- Company Merchandise and Staff Discounts;
- Other benefits introduced from time to time.

All benefits are subject to eligibility criteria and may be amended, suspended, or withdrawn at the Company's discretion.

10. EMPLOYEE RESPONSIBILITIES

Employees are expected to:

- ✓ Review monthly payslips.
- ✓ Submit claims accurately and promptly.
- ✓ Maintain confidentiality of compensation information.
- ✓ Update banking and personal information when necessary.

- ✓ Report payroll discrepancies immediately.
- ✓ Avoid abuse of claims and reimbursement privileges.

Any falsification of payroll records, claims, or supporting documents may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

PART ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I confirm that I have read and understood Part 6: Compensation & Benefits.

The applicable contribution rates shall be determined in accordance with prevailing legislation and may change from time to time.

2. SOCIAL SECURITY ORGANISATION (SOCSO / PERKESO)

The Company shall register eligible employees with the Social Security Organisation (SOCSO / PERKESO) and make contributions in accordance with applicable laws, including the Employees' Social Security Act 1969 and related regulations. Particular emphasis is placed on compliance with the Self-Employment Social Security Scheme (SKBBK), which provides protection for eligible self-employed individuals and specific categories of workers engaged by the Company.

2.1 Purpose

SOCSO provides social protection benefits to employees, including:

- Employment Injury Benefits;
- Invalidity Benefits;
- Medical Benefits;
- Rehabilitation Assistance;
- Dependants' Benefits;
- Coverage under relevant schemes such as SKBBK, which offers protection against employment-related injuries, occupational diseases, and other risks faced by self-employed or designated workers.

2.2 Employer Responsibilities

The Company shall:

- Register eligible employees under SOCSO and ensure proper enrolment in applicable schemes, including SKBBK where required;
- Make timely and accurate contributions for both SOCSO and SKBBK participants;
- Ensure full compliance with all statutory requirements governing SOCSO and SKBBK;
- Identify roles or individuals that fall under SKBBK coverage and ensure they are appropriately registered;
- Report workplace accidents and incidents in accordance with SOCSO regulations;
- Facilitate claims and documentation, including those specifically related to SKBBK benefits.

2.3 Employee Responsibilities

Employees are required to:

- Provide accurate and complete personal and employment information;
- Report workplace accidents or injuries promptly;
- Cooperate fully in any SOCSO or SKBBK claims process, including submission of required documents;
- Understand their eligibility and coverage under SKBBK where applicable;
- Comply with all procedures required for benefit claims and documentation.

3. EMPLOYMENT INSURANCE SYSTEM (EIS)

The Company and eligible employees shall contribute to the Employment Insurance System (EIS) in accordance with applicable laws.

3.1 Purpose

EIS provides temporary financial assistance and employment support to employees who lose their jobs under qualifying circumstances.

Benefits may include:

- Job Search Allowance;
- Early Re-employment Allowance;
- Reduced Income Allowance;
- Training and Career Support.

3.2 Employer Responsibilities

The Company shall:

- Register employees;
- Deduct and remit contributions;
- Comply with statutory reporting obligations.

4. HRD CORP LEVY

Where applicable, the Company shall contribute to the Human Resources Development Corporation (HRD Corp) in accordance with statutory requirements.

4.1 Purpose

The HRD Corp Levy supports:

- Employee training;
- Upskilling programmes;
- Professional development initiatives.

The Company reserves the right to determine employee participation in training programmes funded under HRD Corp schemes.

Employees who participate in sponsored programmes may be required to comply with separate Training Bond Agreements.

5. MONTHLY TAX DEDUCTION (PCB)

The Company shall deduct Monthly Tax Deduction (Potongan Cukai Bulanan or PCB) where required by law.

5.1 Purpose

PCB serves as an advance deduction towards an employee's annual income tax obligations.

5.2 Employer Responsibilities

The Company shall:

- Calculate and deduct PCB where applicable;
- Remit payments to the relevant authorities;
- Maintain payroll and tax records.

5.3 Employee Responsibilities

Employees are responsible for:

- Providing accurate tax information;
- Updating personal particulars affecting tax reliefs;
- Reviewing monthly deductions.

The Company does not provide personal tax advice and employees are encouraged to seek professional advice where necessary.

6. INCOME TAX FILING (LHDN)

Employees are responsible for filing their annual income tax returns where required by law.

The Company shall issue the relevant income statements and employment information as required by applicable legislation.

Employees are responsible for:

- Filing annual tax returns within the prescribed timelines;
- Ensuring the accuracy of information submitted;
- Declaring additional sources of income where applicable.

Failure to comply with tax obligations remains the sole responsibility of the employee.

7. TAX IDENTIFICATION NUMBER (TIN)

Employees are responsible for obtaining and maintaining a valid Tax Identification Number (TIN) where required by law.

Employees must:

- Provide their TIN to the Company;
- Update any changes to their tax information;
- Ensure the information provided is accurate and complete.

Failure to provide the necessary tax information may affect payroll processing and statutory reporting requirements.

8. EMPLOYEE STATUTORY RESPONSIBILITIES

Employees are required to:

8.1 Provide Accurate Information

Including:

- NRIC or Passport details;
- Residential address;
- Tax Identification Number;
- EPF Number;

DISCIPLINE & GRIEVANCE

WHAT THIS PART COVERS

- Grievance Procedure
- Counselling And Coaching Procedure
- Domestic Inquiry Procedure
- Complaint Handling Procedure
- Show Cause Procedure
- Disciplinary Action Procedure

Read this Part carefully and complete the acknowledgement at the end.

RedPoint Sdn Bhd believes in maintaining a professional, respectful, and productive workplace. The Company is committed to ensuring that disciplinary matters and employee grievances are handled fairly, consistently, and in accordance with applicable laws and principles of natural justice.

The objective of this section is to:

- Maintain workplace discipline and standards;
- Address concerns and disputes fairly;
- Provide employees with an opportunity to be heard;
- Ensure due process in disciplinary matters.

1. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

The Company encourages employees to raise concerns promptly to facilitate timely resolution.

Examples of grievances may include:

- Workplace conflicts;
- Unfair treatment;
- Harassment concerns;
- Working conditions;
- Communication issues;
- Management concerns.

1.1 Grievance Process

GRIEVANCE RESOLUTION

Complaints may be submitted:

- Verbally; or
- In writing.

Complaints may relate to:

- Misconduct;
- Harassment;
- Policy violations;
- Workplace disputes;
- Safety concerns.

The Company reserves the right to:

- Conduct investigations;
- Request supporting information;
- Interview relevant parties;
- Implement corrective measures where appropriate.

False or malicious complaints may result in disciplinary action.

3. COUNSELLING AND COACHING PROCEDURE

The Company encourages early intervention and constructive feedback.

Counselling and coaching may be conducted for:

- Attendance issues;
- Performance concerns;
- Behavioural matters;
- Communication issues;
- Workplace relationships.

Counselling and coaching are intended to:

- Clarify expectations;
- Support improvement;
- Provide guidance and feedback.

Counselling and coaching do not constitute disciplinary action.

A record of counselling may be maintained by the Company.

4. SHOW CAUSE PROCEDURE

Where an employee is alleged to have committed misconduct, the Company may issue a Show Cause Letter.

The Show Cause Letter shall generally contain:

- Details of the allegation;
- Relevant facts and circumstances;
- Timeframe for response.

The employee shall be given a reasonable opportunity to provide a written explanation.

The Company may consider:

- The employee's explanation;
- Supporting evidence;
- Previous conduct and disciplinary record.

Submission of a response does not automatically exempt the employee from further action.

Failure to respond within the stipulated timeframe may result in the Company proceeding based on the available information.

5. DOMESTIC INQUIRY PROCEDURE

The Company reserves the right to conduct a Domestic Inquiry where necessary.

A Domestic Inquiry may be conducted where allegations involve:

- Serious misconduct;
- Disputes of fact;
- Potential dismissal;
- Significant breaches of Company policies.

The purpose of a Domestic Inquiry is to:

- Establish facts;
- Provide the employee with an opportunity to be heard;
- Ensure procedural fairness.

Employees may be informed of:

- The allegations;
- The date and venue of the inquiry;
- Their right to present evidence and witnesses.

Following the inquiry, Management shall determine the appropriate course of action.

6. DISCIPLINARY ACTION PROCEDURE

The Company may impose disciplinary action where an employee breaches Company policies, fails to meet expected standards of conduct, or commits misconduct.

Disciplinary action may include:

DISCIPLINARY PATHWAY

01 Counselling or coaching	02 Verbal warning
03 First written warning	04 Final written warning
05 Suspension	06 Termination of employment

The Company reserves the right to determine the appropriate disciplinary action depending on:

- The seriousness of the offence;
- Previous disciplinary record;
- Circumstances of the case.

The Company is not obliged to follow the above sequence in every case.

7. MISCONDUCT POLICY

Misconduct refers to behaviour that breaches Company rules, policies, or expected standards of conduct.

Examples of misconduct include:

- Repeated lateness;
- Unauthorised absence;
- Failure to follow instructions;
- Negligence;
- Inappropriate behaviour;
- Failure to comply with Company procedures;
- Misuse of Company property;
- Failure to maintain professionalism.

Misconduct may result in disciplinary action.

8. SERIOUS MISCONDUCT POLICY

Serious misconduct refers to conduct that fundamentally breaches the employment relationship or significantly damages the Company's interests.

Examples include, but are not limited to:

- Theft;
- Fraud;

- Deliberate damage to Company property;
- Unauthorised disclosure of confidential information;
- Conflict of interest resulting in personal gain;
- Gross negligence;
- Misappropriation of Company funds;
- Unauthorised access to Company systems;
- Serious breaches of cybersecurity policies.

Serious misconduct may result in summary dismissal, subject to due process and applicable laws.

9. SUSPENSION POLICY

The Company reserves the right to suspend an employee where:

- Investigations are required;
- The employee's presence may interfere with investigations;
- Serious allegations have been raised;
- Business interests require temporary removal from duties.

Suspension may be:

- With Pay; or
- Without Pay,

in accordance with applicable laws and Company procedures.

Suspension does not constitute a finding of guilt and should not be interpreted as disciplinary action in itself.

Following investigations, the Company may determine one of the following outcomes:

- No Further Action;
- Counselling;
- Warning;
- Extension of Suspension;
- Domestic Inquiry;
- Termination of Employment;
- Other appropriate actions.

10. DISCIPLINARY MATRIX (GENERAL GUIDELINE)

SEPARATION OF EMPLOYMENT

WHAT THIS PART COVERS

- Resignation Policy
- Payment In Lieu Of Notice
- Retirement Policy
- Notice Period Policy
- Abscondment Policy
- Retrenchment Policy

Read this Part carefully and complete the acknowledgement at the end.

The Company recognises that employment relationships may end for various reasons. This section establishes the procedures and responsibilities relating to resignation, termination, retirement, retrenchment, and employee separation matters.

All separation matters shall be administered in accordance with applicable laws, employment contracts, and Company policies.

1. RESIGNATION POLICY

Employees who wish to resign from employment are required to submit a written resignation letter to their Immediate Supervisor and Human Resources.

The resignation letter should include:

- Last intended working day;
- Notice period to be served;
- Contact information for post-employment matters where applicable.

Resignations become effective upon receipt and acknowledgement by the Company.

The Company reserves the right to:

- Require the employee to serve the full notice period;
- Waive all or part of the notice period;
- Accept payment in lieu of notice.

Employees are expected to:

- Continue performing their duties professionally during the notice period;
- Complete work handovers;
- Return all Company property.

2. NOTICE PERIOD POLICY

The required notice period shall be stated in the employee's Employment Contract.

Unless otherwise specified, the Company's general notice periods are:

2.1 During Probation

within 24 hours

2.2 Confirmed Employees with Less Than Two (2) Years of Service

One (1) month or two (2) months' notice, depending on the Employment Contract.

2.3 Confirmed Employees with Two (2) Years of Service and Above

Two (2) months OR Three (3) months' notice, depending on company discretion.

The same notice period shall generally apply to both the Company and the employee unless otherwise agreed in writing.

3. PAYMENT IN LIEU OF NOTICE

Either party may terminate the employment relationship by making payment in lieu of serving the required notice period.

Payment in lieu of notice shall generally be calculated based on the employee's ordinary rate of pay for the unserved notice period.

The Company reserves the right to:

- Accept or reject requests for early release;
- Offset monies owed to the employee in accordance with applicable laws;
- Require payment before the employee's last working day.

4. ABSCONDMENT POLICY

An employee may be deemed to have absconded from employment if the employee:

- Fails to report to work without reasonable explanation; and
- Fails to notify the Company of the absence.

As a general guideline, the Company may consider an employee to have absconded if the employee is absent without notification for two (2) consecutive working days or such other period as determined by applicable laws and circumstances.

The Company may:

- Attempt to contact the employee;
- Issue a show cause letter;
- Send written communication to the employee's last known address;
- Proceed with appropriate action if no satisfactory explanation is received.

The Company reserves the right to treat prolonged unexplained absence as abandonment of employment.

5. RETIREMENT POLICY

The Company's retirement age shall be in accordance with applicable laws and any retirement age prescribed by the Company from time to time.

Employees approaching retirement may be notified in advance to facilitate workforce planning and transition arrangements.

Retirement benefits, if any, shall be governed by:

- Employment Contract;
- Company policies;
- Applicable laws.

The Company reserves the right to consider post-retirement engagement arrangements where appropriate.

6. RETRENCHMENT POLICY

The Company may implement retrenchment exercises due to:

- Business restructuring;
- Redundancy;
- Organisational changes;
- Economic circumstances;
- Technological changes;
- Operational requirements.

Where retrenchment becomes necessary, the Company shall endeavour to act fairly and in accordance with applicable laws and guidelines.

The Company may consider factors such as:

- Operational requirements;
- Skills and competencies;
- Performance;
- Length of service;
- Business needs.

Where applicable, eligible employees may receive termination or retrenchment benefits in accordance with applicable laws and Company policies.

7. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT POLICY

Employment may be terminated by the Company for reasons including:

- Misconduct;
- Poor performance;
- Non-confirmation of probation;
- Redundancy;
- Medical incapacity;
- Expiry of contract;
- Other lawful reasons.

The Company shall endeavour to observe principles of fairness and due process in managing termination matters.

The Company reserves the right to:

- Issue notice of termination;
- Make payment in lieu of notice;
- Implement disciplinary procedures where necessary.

Serious misconduct may result in summary dismissal in accordance with applicable laws and Company procedures.

8. EXIT CLEARANCE PROCEDURE

Employees leaving the Company are required to complete the Exit Clearance Process.

The purpose of the Exit Clearance is to ensure:

- Proper handover of duties;
- Return of Company property;
- Closure of access rights;
- Settlement of outstanding matters.

Employees may be required to:

RETURN COMPANY PROPERTY	RETURN DIGITAL ASSETS	COMPLETE ADMINISTRATION
• Laptops • Mobile devices • Chargers and accessories • Access cards and keys • Company documents • Company credit cards	• Email accounts • Passwords • Social media accounts • Client files • Cloud storage access • Advertising accounts	• Expense claims • Outstanding advances • Company records • Handover notes

The Company reserves the right to withhold certain payments where permitted by law pending completion of exit clearance requirements.

9. EXIT INTERVIEW PROCEDURE

The Company may conduct an Exit Interview with employees leaving the organisation.

The purpose of the Exit Interview is to:

- Obtain feedback;
- Understand reasons for separation;
- Identify opportunities for improvement;
- Support organisational development.

Participation in an Exit Interview is encouraged but may not be mandatory.

Information provided during Exit Interviews shall be treated confidentially where practicable.

10. FINAL SALARY PAYMENT POLICY

The Company shall process final salary payments in accordance with applicable laws.

Final payments may include:

- Salary up to the last working day;
- Approved claims and reimbursements;
- Unused leave encashment where applicable;
- Other contractual payments.

The Company may deduct amounts permitted by law, including:

- Payment in lieu of notice;
- Outstanding advances;
- Unreturned Company property;
- Other lawful deductions.

Final payments shall generally be processed after:

- Completion of Exit Clearance;
- Verification of outstanding obligations;
- Completion of administrative requirements.

The Company reserves the right to offset any monies owed by the employee in accordance with applicable laws.

11. POST-EMPLOYMENT OBLIGATIONS

Upon cessation of employment, employees remain bound by obligations relating to:

- Confidentiality;
- Non-disclosure of Company information;
- Protection of intellectual property;
- Return of Company assets;
- Protection of client information.

Unauthorised retention or use of Company information after employment may result in legal action.

12. EMPLOYEE RESPONSIBILITIES UPON SEPARATION

Employees are expected to:

- ✓ Serve the required notice period or make payment in lieu where applicable.
- ✓ Complete work handovers professionally.
- ✓ Return all Company property and digital assets.
- ✓ Cooperate in the Exit Clearance process.
- ✓ Settle outstanding obligations.
- ✓ Continue observing confidentiality obligations after employment.

The Company is committed to managing employee separations professionally, respectfully, and in accordance with applicable laws and good employment practices.

PART ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I confirm that I have read and understood Part 14: Separation Of Employment.

FINAL PROVISIONS

WHAT THIS PART COVERS

- Final Provisions

Read this Part carefully and complete the acknowledgement at the end.

1. Final Provisions

This Employee Handbook is intended to provide employees with general guidance on the Company's policies, procedures, benefits, and expectations.

This Handbook does not constitute a contract of employment and shall not be interpreted as creating any contractual rights beyond those expressly stated in the Employee's Employment Contract or as required by applicable laws.

The Company reserves the right to:

- Amend;
- Modify;
- Suspend;
- Withdraw; or
- Introduce

any policy, procedure, guideline, benefit, or practice contained in this Handbook at any time, with or without prior notice, subject to applicable laws.

Where there is any inconsistency between this Handbook and the Employee's Employment Contract, the Employment Contract shall prevail unless otherwise required by law.

All employees are expected to familiarise themselves with and comply with the policies and procedures contained in this Handbook, together with any subsequent amendments, notices, circulars, or directives issued by the Company.

Failure to comply with Company policies may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.
